A diagram of a baseball diamond is centered on the page. The diamond is formed by four lines meeting at four vertices. At each vertex, a box representing a baseball position is placed. The boxes are labeled: 'LEFT FIELD' at the top-left vertex, 'CENTER FIELD' at the top-right vertex, 'RIGHT FIELD' at the bottom-right vertex, 'THIRD BASE' at the bottom-left vertex, 'SHORTSTOP' at the top-left vertex, 'SECOND BASE' at the top-right vertex, 'FIRST BASE' at the bottom-right vertex, 'PITCHER' at the bottom-left vertex, and 'CATCHER' at the bottom-right vertex. Each box contains a numbered list from 1 to 4, intended for listing players in order of depth. The boxes are arranged in a way that they overlap slightly, with the 'PITCHER' box at the bottom and the 'CATCHER' box at the very bottom. The 'THIRD BASE' and 'FIRST BASE' boxes are on the left and right sides respectively, while the 'SHORTSTOP' and 'SECOND BASE' boxes are in the middle. The 'LEFT FIELD', 'CENTER FIELD', and 'RIGHT FIELD' boxes are at the top. The diamond is drawn with a light gray line, and the boxes are white with black borders. The entire chart is set against a black background with the title 'DEPTH CHART' at the top.
